

Westlaw International - Asia

Researching Malaysia Content

Course Description

This session will guide you through effectively using Westlaw International (Asia) to research Malaysian legal cases and legislation*, covering advanced search techniques, and a live demonstration to enhance your research skills. Join us to maximize your use of Westlaw International (Asia) for Malaysian law research.

Access to content is subscription dependent.*

By the end of this session, participants will be able to:

- Conduct precise searches for relevant Malaysian legal content.
- Use the document preview pane to quickly assess a case's relevance.
- Share folders and annotations to collaborate on legal research.
- Create Alerts to receive latest legal developments and updates
- Use "Pay Per View" for content outside your subscription.
- Utilize help and support features on Westlaw for efficient research.

Session Duration

30 minutes.

Session Delivery Method

Online via Microsoft Teams. Note: The Webinar session allows participants to view the trainer's computer screen. At no time does the trainer access your computer.

Learning Materials

Online help and support materials available from the Training and Support Portal

Training Specialist

The session is facilitated by a Thomson Reuters Training Specialist.