

Westlaw International – Asia

Researching Singapore Content

Course Description

This session will guide you through effectively using Westlaw International (Asia) to research Singapore content, covering advanced search techniques, and a live demonstration to enhance your research skills. Join us to maximize your use of Westlaw International (Asia) for Singapore legal research.

By the end of this session, participants will be able to:

- Navigate the homepage and understand the structure of Singapore's content.
- Search for relevant legal information in Singapore.
- Use Terms and Connectors to refine search queries.
- Apply filters and tools to locate specific results.
- Research Commentary, Asian Legal Business, and Current Awareness effectively.
- Understand the coverage of Singapore Cases and Legislation.
- Conduct advanced searches for various content types.
- Create customised Alerts for updates on legal topics.
- Access Westlaw's support features for optimal research and troubleshooting.

Session Duration

30 minutes.

Session Delivery Method

Online via Microsoft Teams. Note: The Webinar session allows participants to view the trainer's computer screen. At no time does the trainer access your computer.

Learning Materials

Online help and support materials available from the Training and Support Portal

Training Specialist

The session is facilitated by a Thomson Reuters Training Specialist.